Dublin IGU Travel Grant Program

The International Geographical Union (IGU) announces the availability of travel grants awarded on a competitive basis to help defray the costs of in-person participation in the 2024 IGU-UGI Congress, due to take place from 24-30 August 2024 in Dublin, Ireland. A maximum of US$1000 will be awarded to successful candidates.

In selecting applicants to receive travel grants, preference will be given to early career scholars, in particular those from low income countries. Grants may also be available for senior scholars, for example, session organizers or steering committee members from low income countries who are not able to find funding. Please note that full participation in the conference program, including the closing ceremony is required from recipients of the IGU Travel Grants.

Please complete the online questionnaire to complete your application (<https://forms.gle/4RXV2sECYPfr8QKf6>). If you are unable to complete the application online, please submit a .pdf copy of the application (found below), as a single document, directly to Vice President Holly Barcus, by email to: barcus@macalester.edu.

Completed applications are due at no later than 31st January 2024. Applicants will be notified of the outcome of their requests no later than 1st March 2024. Awards are paid to successful applicants in cash on arrival for the conference in Dublin.

Direct any questions regarding IGU Travel Grant applications to: barcus@macalester.edu
